BADGES

We have been looking into badges for a few months now. The original supplier we looked at seemed to have a very good price, but after set ups and engraving fees it ended up being 3 times the cost we anticipated. Other sources we looked at were the same and the final cost per badge ran in the mid teens. The source we came up with had a one time set up for the logo and a flat cost for the badges with a minimum order of one. The cost per works out to $8.50 per member. If you would like to order one please make out your check to the Valley of Brattleboro.
